

Historic St. George Island Inaugural Canoe & Kayak Races

Sunday, June 28, 2009

At the Chesapeake Bay Field Lab on St. George Island at the end of Piney Point Road

Noon to 4 p.m.

Support environmental education on the Chesapeake by racing, paddling, cheering and playing at the Field Lab. Prizes for race winners. A cash race. $25 registration fee to race. Vessel rentals available. $5 launch fee. Games on shore. Skipjack tours. Marsh trail hikes. Free Admission to cheer on the racers. Food and beverage purchases available.

Races include:

Law Enforcement "Bragging Rights" race — all law enforcement officials & citizens welcome — the winner holds Law Enforcement Bragging rights all year

AARP Classic — maturity alone doesn't get you in, you have to have lived it!

Cash Race — and who wouldn't want to enter?

Blind Race — water marshals will be there to help!

One-Armed Race — this race may take a little bit longer than the others, but the scenery is great, the company excellent and the cause worthy — so don't worry, be happy.

Gold Sponsors ($250) puts a team in all races

Silver Sponsor ($150) — puts a team in three races

Bronze Sponsor ($100) — puts a team in two races
